For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time has come for my departure. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearance.

— 2 Timothy 4:6–8

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost, but now I’m found;
Was blind, but now can see.

’Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace that fear relieved.
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed.

When we’ve been there 10,000 years
Bright shining as the sun,
We’ve no less days to sing God’s praise
Than when we first begun.

Praise God!
