

April 2, 2021 Opener

Phishing is the art of sending bogus but real-looking emails to get someone's information, such as login credentials or bank account numbers. It is very effective especially when crafted for a particular user (this is called spearphishing).

Let's look at some emails and see how well we can identify phishing attacks by taking a short, fun test from Intradyn:

Phishing test